

Out Of Town Groomsmen

Wedding parties are often spread out across different cities. But what happens when the groom and his groomsmen live in other states? It's essential to ensure that everyone is comfortable and at ease when getting their formal wear. You want to ensure their clothing fits perfectly and is ready on time!

Brides and grooms, once you have booked your wedding and selected styles, let your groomsmen know which attire you have chosen. Reassure them that they can get fitted for their attire in the comfort of their hometown, making the process more convenient for them.

Groomsmen, Visit a local tuxedo store for professional measurements. Accurate measurements are crucial to ensure your attire fits perfectly, so please download and print our measurement form below.

Please call us at (201) 438-6636 to give your measurements.

When the out-of-town groomsmen arrive in town, they will have their first fitting, which ensures a perfect fit. All payments are due at this time.

All rentals are due the day after the event unless other arrangements have been made.
